Barbecue Cook-off Rules and Guidelines

CONTEST MEATS: Contest meats must be raw and in original packaging until inspected. The contest meats include: Beef briskets, whole chickens, and pork spare ribs.

General Barbecue Cook-Off Rules (IBCA Rules Apply)

1. Only ONE team per barbecue pit will be allowed. A team consists of the members designated on the registration form. Multiple entries for each category meat from any one team will not be allowed.
2. Barbecue, for this contest, is defined as raw or uncured meat prepared over a wood or charcoal fire, basted or not, as the cook sees fit.
3. No pre-seasoning or pre-cooking of the meat is allowed until it has been inspected and approved for cook-off use. Any meat found not in compliance with this rule will be disqualified.
4. After all meat is inspected and approved, it must not leave the contest area. Members from the contest committee will inspect all competition meat upon arrival.
5. All entries must be prepared in as sanitary a manner as possible.
6. All fires used to cook meat in this contest must be of wood or charcoal. A BBQ Pit may include gas or electricity for starting the combustion of wood or wood products but NOT to complete cooking.
7. There will be no refund of entry fees for any reason and the decision(s) of the host contest committee head judge and judges are final.

Cook/Team Responsibilities

1. Each team is responsible for the maintenance and cleanup of its cooking area including cigarette butts and coals.
2. Competing head cooks are not allowed to judge and judges are not allowed to cook.
