The Normangee FFA is one of the largest student groups at Normangee ISD and is backed by the National FFA. The program is instrumental in turning out the next generation of agriculture leaders and tradesman. With an emphasis on critical job skills, students learn how to live out their motto: Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve. All funds raised will support the activities of the local FFA program. Thank you for supporting this important cause to better the future for our students.
